Stocks Fairly Active in a Declining Market.

A BAD BANK STATEMENT.

Call Loans on Stocks Rule 6 to 7 and Close at 5.

The stock market to-day was uneventful. Busi-ness was pretty much left to the playful gambollings of bear cubs and bull calves. The heavy "grizzlies" hibernated in their offices, and the monarchs of the herd" showed themselves to be decidedly short horned whenever they attempted to toss up prices. In fact, they scarcely attempted it at all, and the consequence was that the market, left without support, sagged, grew weak and finally closed at about the lowest figures of the day. A very free selling of Erie and Western Union was greatly instrumental in producing this result. It was the street talk that considerable lots of both these stocks were being sold out for the account of an operator who is notorious for having been recently as unlucky as he has been daring. Having swelled his operations, based upon thin margins, to an inordinate extent, his credit burst like an aneurism. Consequently the stocks with which his name was associated burst also—that is, if so small a decline as 2 to 3 per cent can be justly expressed by so portentous a term. At any rate, the whole market fell off under the decline of Eric and Western Union. Beyond the dulness of business and the weakness of prices there is little to note. The C., C. and I. C. Committee held a meeting today and agreed upon a report as to what was beat to be done for the interests of the road, but failed to give any definite information about the proposed compremise with the Pennsylvania Company, which, after all, is the only point which interests the community. The report, in detail, will be found in Nashville and Chattanooga at declining prices. Well informed parties are enthusiastic as to the future of this property. In March a dividend of 28 per cent in scrip and 5 per cent in cash will be declared. The company has been gradually adding to its connections by the purchase at low prices of roads which have either been foreclosed or otherwise fallen into a state of insolvency, and it is stated that these purchases have been made out of earnings, and without the issue of a dollar's worth of stock. The property is represented by some eight hundred miles of road, has but a moderate bonded debt and owes only $6,500,000 on stock account. Through Prince & Whitely we receive the following report of the Philadelphia market:— "The chief feature in to-day's market was great

On the Stock Exchange prices were generally lower. Home and foreign governments, home railways and miscellaneous securities all show a curtailment of business, with a drooping tendency. Fogs, cold weather and the approach of the holidays have checked speculation, the only department showing a revival being American railways, some of which were again in strong favor. Predicating calculations upon past results of the working of a number of these mines, it appears justified to assume that they will readily pay now and in the future permanently at loss! 2 per cent per month. Seventeen mining properties arecovered by this Company's chims, all connected by the well known Marshall Tunnel property of this company, now 1,400 feet in longth. About one-fourth of the mines is thus far largely developed and at present in good pay ore. The estimation of carnings is solely based upon the thus development machinery. Ac., all pand from out of the property, and over one million dollars are reported a realized from sale of the ore. These claims have government patents securing titles beyond any doubt.
